
City monthly availability is a source-level indicator (100% = present), not suburb coverage.
A matched suburb row can still have suppressed rent. Missing releases mean unavailable rent, not zero rent.